Today's Gospel passage immediately follows St. John the Evangelist's account of Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem, just days before His Passion and Death. Even among His closest disciples, very few had any idea of what Jesus would soon suffer. So, when some Greeks ask to see Jesus, it's telling that He answers that the "Hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified."

The Greeks might have been impressed, thinking that they'd found this Jesus at just the right time: the hour of His glory! If Peter, James and John were there to hear Jesus' answer, they might have thought that Jesus was referring to the fulfillment of the transfiguration that they'd seen on the mountain. However, on the mount of Calvary another type of glorification was to occur.

The glory of the Cross is the glory of the grain of wheat falling to the ground and dying. The glory of the Cross lies in loss of self for the sake of an abundance for others. The glory of Jesus' Cross lies in loss of self not for oneself, nor even only for God, but also for all those whom God loves, which is all peoples. The hour has come for each of us to enter into Jesus' glory, the glory of the Cross.

Fr. Jinto Mathew CSC

We keep in our prayers the sick, elderly, the homebound, the "forgotten members" in our community, and their families and caregivers. "Lord surround them you're your healing and steadfast love." especially Sharbel (Infant son of our newcomer family Naseer & Zinah), Valrie Lashley, Stephanie Winkler, Ernesto Bouey, Mattia Paladini, Jackie Marksman, Marlon Kowalski, Heather Tobias, Laura MacDonald, Maria Jose Bouey.

Global Warming and Climate change Care for our Common Home

On Monday last our Laudatio Si” Group concluded its dialogue sessions on our responsibility for the environment – our common home. Our sincere thanks to Sister Janet and Sister Mary Ellen for leading the discussions. Now it is time for our action. As United Nations has designated March 22 as World Water Day let us begin with looking at our water usage and wastage. Here are some suggestions on what we might do:

- Refrain from buying bottled water
- Take shorter showers
- Turn off water after you wet your toothbrush
- Use dishwashers and clothes washers for full loads only
- Check faucets and pipes for leaks (leaky faucet can waste 10 gallons of water a day)
- Etc. THANK YOU!

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT: ShareLife Sunday March 18, 2018

*Living the Gospel locally and around the world
“It is important that we continue to support the ShareLife appeal, to provide for the needs of the marginalized both here in our communities and around the world. Sometimes the results are obvious and sometimes they’re invisible, but always they make a tangible difference in the lives of the people we are helping. Please prayerfully consider how you can be supportive today on ShareLife Sunday.” —Thomas Cardinal Collins, Archbishop of Toronto.
Today is ShareLife Sunday. Thank you for your generosity.*
