Love Conquers All

The readings on Palm Sunday invite us to participate in the profound drama of Jesus' life – and of his disciples. There are many things in our daily life that permit us to get in touch with Jesus' passion and his suffering on the cross; in moments of tiredness, failure, limited patience, anxiety and so forth. We are invited to walk with Christ in these moments of His and our struggles, His and our passion. He will help us turn things around and see them from a different perspective – the perspective of the cross. We can find His presence in all darkness, suffering or conflict.

In the Passion of Christ, God shows us that, as St. Maximilian Kolbe says, "love lives through sacrifice and is nourished by giving - without sacrifice, there is no love." As we begin this Holy Week we pray for ourselves and for each other that we be blessed to have that mind in us which was also in Christ Jesus who was obedient unto death, even death on a cross. All this was because he loved each one of us.

EASTER TRIDUUM

Through his paschal mystery, the Lord Jesus redeemed the human race and gave perfect glory to the Father. By dying, Christ destroyed our death; by rising he restored our life. For this reason, the Easter Triduum, when we celebrate the suffering, death and resurrection of our Lord, is the high point of the liturgical year. The Easter solemnity is to the year what Sunday is to the week. The celebration of the Easter Triduum opens with the evening Mass of the Lord's Supper, reaches its climax in the Easter Vigil, and closes with Evening Prayer II on Easter Sunday.

ShareLife

Living the Gospel by supporting the Deaf community

Imagine you were a Deaf child and your parents and siblings didn't know sign language. Your parents could gesture in a rudimentary way, but how do you share your joys, fears and needs? Silent Voice teaches American Sign Language and Deaf culture to families so they can share a common language. Says one grateful parent, "I'm so passionate about Silent Voice because their Family Communication Program rescues children from social isolation." Last year more than 750 Deaf children and adults received help through ShareLife-supported programs at Silent Voice.
