The Lord has Risen,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

40-4

In the Resurrection accounts, Jesus' friends often need time to recognize him. Mary Magdalene initially thinks he is the gardener as she sits near the tomb, mourning. Only when he calls her by name does she recognize him. The disciples on the road to Emmaus initially dismiss Jesus as someone who is ignorant of the Crucifixion and all that weighs heavily on their hearts. Only later do they recognize him in the opening of Scripture, and in the breaking of the bread.

Today we might also wonder where we can find the Resurrected Christ in our midst. The stories of Jesus' first appearances suggest that finding the Resurrected Christ requires longing, attentiveness and patience. By staying with our longing, we are more likely to encounter the Resurrection. Mary Magdalene was the first to see Jesus because she had a deep and holy longing for him. She stayed present to her desire to be close to the Lord instead of walking away from her unfulfilled hopes and desires. May we always long for and be attentive to the power and presence of the Risen Lord. I pray your celebration of this great feast is a time of grace.

I wish you and your loved ones a Blessed and Happy Easter. I also wish to extend a very special thanks to all who have helped to make our Easter a joyous celebration. I would like to recognize the efforts of the parish staff, Altar Society, Holy Name Choir, African Catholic Community, Ministers of the Word, Eucharist and Hospitality, altar servers, and boy's scouts. Thank you.

Fr. Jinto Mathew

Living the Gospel by evangelizing our faith in the greater world

Gia Lao Parish resides in the mountainous Diocese of Xuan Loc in Vietnam. Its parishioners, mostly poor, work on the hillside farms. The Pastoral Mission Fund, with the support of ShareLife, provided a one-time grant so the parish could acquire resources it could not otherwise provide. This includes bibles and hymnals, along with training for 60 catechists, who lead marriage preparation and catechism classes. With your support, Gia Lao Church is bringing faith to a community in the greater world.
