2nd Sunday of Easter

The Gospel stories for Easter Sunday and the following Sundays of Easter remind us of the struggle of the early followers of Jesus to understand and believe in the resurrection. It is reassuring for us to realise that even those closest to Jesus took time to accept and believe in the resurrection.

In the Gospel passages of the Easter week, the signs are there for people to see. Mary thinks someone has taken Jesus' body. The disciples see the grave clothes folded up in a corner yet still struggle to understand the resurrection. Thomas has to see the evidence with his own eyes.

Understanding comes over time.

Over these weeks of the Easter season take time each day to think about what has brought you life, love and hope today. Thank God for these small signs of resurrection.

Fr. Jinto Mathew CSC
