“Gaudete et Exsultate: The Call to Holiness in Today’s World”

“Rejoice and be glad.” With these words from Matthew’s Gospel (5:12), Pope Francis begins his new apostolic exhortation “Gaudete et Exsultate: The Call to Holiness in Today’s World.”

The Holy Father’s goal with this document “is to re-propose the call to holiness in a practical way for our own time, with all its risks, challenges and opportunities”. At its core, he says, this “holiness is experiencing, in union with Christ, the mysteries of his life,” and letting ourselves be transformed into Christ who is love incarnate. In other words, “we are all called to be holy by living our lives with love and by bearing witness in everything we do, wherever we find ourselves” – and such holiness grows even in small gestures.

During this holy season of the Risen Lord, I highly recommend that you read, reflect and pray upon the words of our Holy Father Pope Francis. In the coming weeks, you will find in the bulletin excerpts from the Apostolic Exhortation for your study, prayer and reflection in your own pilgrim journey.

Fr. Jinto Mathew CSC

We keep in our prayers the sick, elderly, the homebound, the “forgotten members” in our community, and their families and caregivers. “Lord surround them with your healing and steadfast love.” especially

Living the Gospel by helping those with addictions

Living the Gospel by helping those with addictions Scarred by an abusive childhood, Andrew became addicted to hard drugs as an early teen. His next 20 years were spent in-and-out of jail and the hospital. He finally came to St. Michael’s Homes, a ShareLife-funded agency that offers a residential program for those struggling with substance abuse. Now sober and equipped with coping skills, Andrew is happy and building a new life. By supporting ShareLife, you’re helping people like Andrew get their lives back on track.
