As we continue our advent journey, we can do that with confidence, remembering those words that Paul wrote to his dearest friends at Philippi and writes to us today: "God has begun this good work in you and God will bring it to completion.

All we need to do is to open our hearts, open our lives, be ready, and through Jesus, God will bring to completion the work God has already begun."

We will continue, then, to be faithful followers of Jesus, ready to continue his work of bringing the Reign of God, the reign of justice and peace into our world.
