Where is the newborn king...?

This weekend, we celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany of the Lord. The word “epiphany” comes from the Greek word “to reveal” or “to make known.” Today’s Gospel recounts the Magi’s ominous interaction with Herod, their vision of the star, homage to the Christ Child, and gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. Most often, we concentrate on the Herod’s plot, the star, or the giving of gifts. But this year, let us consider their initial question: “Where is the newborn king...?”

Although we know by faith that Christ is ever present, we still spend our lives searching for him. We beg for his comfort, consolation, and peace. We search for him in prayer, in good works, in fellowship with others. In one of his Christmas Eve homilies, Pope Francis reminds us that we need not search in vain! We find Christ Jesus not by searching for him, but by opening our hearts to his love. He says: “What is most important is not seeking him, but rather allowing him to seek me, find me, and caress me with tenderness. As we begin this New Year, let us not search for the newborn king. Instead, let us simply open our hearts to his friendship, love, and endless mercy.
