FAITH JOURNEYS
A Pilgrimage in the Holy Land
November 10-20, 2019

If you would like to join Fr. Edward Smith pastor of St. Paul’s Basilica on this pilgrimage information is available at the entrance of the church.

In the gospel reading for the third Sunday of Ordinary Time, we heard Jesus proclaiming to the people of his home town of Nazareth that his mission was “to bring good news to the poor, to proclaim liberty to captives and new sight to the blind, to free the downtrodden and to proclaim the Lord’s year of favour”. The four “beatitudes” at the start of today’s gospel are a more poetic rendition of his mission statement and directed pointedly to the strugglers in his audience. His intention was to offer them a message of hope and encouragement. Then he directed a sterner message to those in the crowd who were self-satisfied and comfortable.

Jesus’ words are a reminder to us that, whatever our circumstance, we are not overlooked by God. We are not alone in our experiences, our needs and our losses, and we have an obligation not to leave our fellow human beings alone in theirs. And that’s the kernel of today’s gospel.
