In today's gospel we hear the Father speak of Jesus as God's beloved son. "Listen to him," declares the Father on the mount of the transfiguration. Listen is the only thing the disciples are told throughout this whole event. "Listening to Jesus" might offer us a valuable practice as we enter into this second week of Lent this year.

As we listen carefully to his voice we will come to know a God who calls us to deeper relationship with God's self. As we listen carefully to his voice in the daily events of our lives we will come to know a God who is present in the midst of our lives. Listening is our spiritual practice. May this Lent be a time for us to listen to His voice who gently guides us in our daily lives.

Jinto Mathew CSC

"A steward is a servant entrusted for a time with the goods of the Master. The steward uses but does not own these goods, and must eventually give an account to the Master for the way in which they have been cared for and made fruitful."

SL ShareLife

Living the Gospel by helping young mothers

Anika became a mother at the age of 19. Soon after, her fiancé became increasingly controlling. Feeling isolated, she reached out to a ShareLife agency called Rose of Sharon. She and her son attended almost every program offered, including one called Healthy Relationships. Anika realized she didn't have to tolerate her partner's behavior. Rose of Sharon helped her find an affordable apartment so she and her son could move out. "I never thought I could make it on my own," says Anika. "But with the help of Rose of Sharon, here I am doing it."

March 31 is ShareLife Sunday.
Please give generously.
