In November, before the end of the Church's liturgical year and the beginning of Advent, we listen to Scripture readings that speak to us about the end times. Today's apocalyptic readings give us a great opportunity to reflect on the meaning of our lives. One beautiful way of life we can choose to adopt here on earth that will greatly prepare us for our heavenly home is that of stewardship. If we live our lives worthy of the call that Christ has given us, by being united to Him in prayer, being strengthened by the sacraments, and striving to offer our gifts to others, we need not fear judgment.

We keep in our prayers the sick, elderly, the homebound, the "forgotten members" in our community, and their families and caregivers. "Lord surround them with your healing and steadfast love." especially Saverina Curcione, Brenda Menezes, Verna Bachan, Mae Bradley, Jaden Babcock, Valrie Lashley, Stephanie Winkler, Jackie Marksman, Maria Jose Bouey

A few concerned Holy Name parishioners have started an informal conversation about how best to mobilize as a faith community to learn more about the effects of residential schools and how we as lay Catholics can respond to the 94 Calls To Action in the Truth and Reconciliation Commission Report.

If you would like to be part of this conversation, we will meet as a group on Sunday Dec. 5th at 11 am in the parish hall.

We will provide updates and more information on how you can get involved early in the new year. Thank you!

Red Wednesday 2021

Wednesday, November 17 – 7 p.m. St. Michael's Cathedral Basilica 65 Bond St., Toronto CENTRAL REGION Aid to the Church in Need (ACN Canada) will hold its 7th annual Red Wednesday on November 17. The goal of the event is to raise awareness and to pray for persecuted Christians, who are the most discriminated against religious group in the world. To mark this important day, ACN and the Archdiocese of Toronto are organizing a prayer vigil at St. Michael's Cathedral Basilica at 7 p.m. All are welcome! To show our solidarity with Christians who are suffering, ACN is also asking all parishes to illuminate their church with red lights in memory of martyred and suffering Christians. There are many other ways to contribute to this day, such as organizing a Mass for persecuted Christians, devoting a rosary or choosing a universal prayer to include in a celebration.
