Epiphany of the Lord

The Epiphany of the Lord

“Where is the newborn king...?” Although we know by faith that Christ is ever present, we still spend our lives searching for him. We long for his comfort, consolation, and peace. We search for him in prayer, in good works, in fellowship with others.

In one of his Christmas Eve homilies, Pope Francis said that we need not search in vain! We find Christ Jesus not by searching for him, but by opening our hearts to his love. He says: “What is most important is not seeking him, but rather allowing him to seek me, find me”.

May God bless you and your family this New Year!

Fr. Jinto Mathew csc

Thank You

At this time of joy and thanksgiving, I wish to extend my personal gratitude to each of you and your families for being a part of our faith-filled community here at Holy Name and for your continued support of our parish. I would also like to extend my gratitude to all who worked so hard to make our Christmas celebrations truly wonderful. I extend my special thanks to our parish teams and volunteers who have worked so hard to ensure the faithful can safely access our church and participate in liturgical celebrations. I also thank everyone for your prayers and for the generous gifts and good wishes – your thoughtfulness is much appreciated.

Fr. Jinto

World Day of Peace – 2022

The pope’s message for the 2022 World Day of Peace, the 55th celebration, is entitled “Dialogue between generations, education, and work: tools for building lasting peace.” In his message Pope Francis outlines three paths for building a lasting peace: promoting dialogue between generations, investing in education, and improving labor conditions. He said the world had witnessed a “significant reduction” in education funding in recent years, while military spending had soared beyond Cold War levels. In his message he calls for more investment in education and less in weaponry.

TRUTH & RECONCILIATION GROUP

The Truth and Reconciliation Group has put together the following list of books, internet links and other resources as a result of ongoing dialogue within the Parish on how we as parishioners can learn more about Truth and Reconciliation, as part of Action #59 of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's 94 Calls to Action, namely: "We call upon church parties to the Settlement Agreement to develop ongoing education strategies to ensure that their respective congregations learn about their church's role in colonization, the history and legacy of residential schools, and why apologies and reparations to former residential school survivors, their families and communities were necessary."

We invite you to explore these resources and join in on our shared learning journey. Please go the parish website holynameto.archtoronto.org. Our next meeting will be in January, at which time we have committed to share reflections on what we have read over the holidays.
