5th Sunday in ordinary time year C

“Then bringing their boats back to land, they left everything and followed him”. These words at the end of this week’s Gospel reading of Luke simply astound me. It reminds me of the insightful influence of Jesus on those who were open to hear. In many ways Peter and his partners James and John simply and powerfully fell into the net of this amazing person, Jesus.

I once thought that God’s call to follow happened only once in our life and if you missed the call, well, you simply missed your call! However, as life opens and reveals more and more you realise that the call of God is constant and changing all in one. It is constant because God fully and wholly understands the fragility of our human nature; we need to be constantly called to life as we get distracted so easily. And it is changing just as our life is changing; “to live is to change, and to be perfect is to have changed often”. John Henry Newman

We keep in our prayers the sick, elderly, the homebound, the “forgotten members” in our community, and their families and caregivers. “Lord surround them with your healing and steadfast love.” especially Jamie Gillingham, Julie Livingstone, Saverina Curcione, Verna Bachan, Mae Bradley, Jaden Babcock, Valrie Lashley, Stephanie Winkler, Jackie Marksman, Maria Jose Bouey.

World Day of the Sick 2022

The Universal Church will celebrate the Thirtieth World Day of the Sick on Friday, February 11, the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes. “Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful: Standing beside those who suffer on a path of charity” is the theme of this year’s observance of the World Day of the Sick. In his message to mark the occasion, Pope Francis reminds us that caring for the ill and infirm is not the calling of a few, but part of every Christian’s mission to show mercy. Let us especially remember and pray for all those who have suffered, and continue to suffer, the effects of the coronavirus pandemic.
