Dear parishioners,

The month of November will soon be upon us, bringing with it the month especially dedicated to praying for the faithful departed. Throughout the year, of course, we remember our loved ones who have died, praying for them and entrusting them to the mercy of God. November brings a particular focus on this very special intention.

Early in the month, we celebrate the day on which this focus culminates – All Souls Day (November 2nd). You may have noticed in last week's bulletin that we will be having 3 Masses on that day – 7 am, 12:05 pm, and 7 pm. There are a few reasons for this special schedule.

All Souls Day is one of only two days in the year (the other being Christmas Day) where a priest is allowed to celebrate 3 Masses. On every other day, it is typical for a priest to celebrate one Mass. This enables the Holy Eucharist to be the center of his day and source of strength. Of course, it does frequently happen that a priest, in the course of his parish duties, must celebrate more than one Mass. This almost always happens on Sundays, with several parish Masses needed. It also happens on days where there might be a funeral or a wedding or another special Mass. However, these are considered "special" situations. On All Souls Day, it is considered the "normal" situation for a priest to celebrate 3 Masses. This special rule is for the sake of the faithful departed – the "extra" Masses, so to speak, are great sources of grace and blessing that we can apply to the souls of the deceased.

Here at Holy Name, then, on All Souls Day, we will be having these 3 Masses available for all to attend. Our regularly scheduled 12:05 pm Mass will take place as usual. The first Mass will take place at 7 am, providing the opportunity for many to attend Mass before heading off the work or school in the morning. The third Mass will take place at 7 pm, so that others can attend Mass in the evening, after finishing the workday.

Let us take the opportunity during the month of November to remember and to pray for our dear loved ones who have passed from this world to the next. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

Fr. Eric

Preparation for First Holy Communion

Dear parents and guardians of children preparing for their First Holy Communion this year:

As we discussed at the initial meeting in June, Fr. Eric will be meeting with each family individually to provide the materials to start the preparations at home. It is our hope that the primary preparation for First Holy Communion will take place with the parents and children, strengthened by their connection with the parish. Fr. Eric will soon be contacting each family to arrange these initial meetings.

If you were not at the meeting in June, please contact Fr. Eric directly to ensure that your child is on the list: erodrigues@archtoronto.org or 416-466-8281.
